Satu Oksanen, Staff Liaison

REPORTS:

- a. Satu handed out financials which do not include exhibition opening expenses, as those will come through via credit card statement.
- b. Marketing – No updates
- c. NPBCA – Dorothy reported that the January meeting included a presentation from Discover the Palm Beaches discussing the state of tourism. Also, many opportunities for instructors with the City of PBG. Next meeting is February 14 in Juno Beach Town Hall discussing AI.

OLD BUSINESS

Centennial Jubilee was a huge success. Committee enjoyed meeting with people and touring the galleries. There were a couple of issues with people leaning on art work and one person trying to take it off the wall to purchase it as well. Satu will make a sign for next exhibition asking those interested in purchasing the art to contact her.

Legacy of Light Opening was one of the best attended. The décor and food and everything were lovely and the art perfect for the theme.

March 9 is last day and pick up is on the 10th. Robin and Melissa volunteered for pick up.

NEW BUSINESS

Next exhibition “Dreamscapes: Beyond the Frame” opens April 4th through May 26 and art drop off is March 31. Elizabeth sending Call to Artists.
